Intermediate ICS for Expanding Incidents (ICS-300)

October 18-20, 2010

Western Kentucky University-Owensboro Campus
4821 New Hartford Road, Owensboro, KY 42303

Offered by:

Kentucky Office of Homeland Security (KOHS)
Kentucky Division of Emergency Management (KyEM)

Course Description:

ICS300 is intended to serve as a vehicle to share proven Incident management strategies and practices as well as to enhance teamwork and coordination among the agency's mid-level managers and command staff directly responsible for emergency response to incidents of all types in which the Incident Command System (ICS) will be employed. The course utilizes scenarios and exercises to highlight key issues and facilitate discussion. The concluding tabletop exercise is intended to allow participants to apply the information provided during the course in a controlled environment. Each day's coursework will begin at 8 am and conclude at 4 pm.

Student Criteria:

This course is open to all Emergency Management, Rescue, Fire, Emergency Medical, and Law Enforcement personnel or other organization having responsibility for incident management. Pre-requisites include ICS700, ICS800, ICS100 and ICS200. Copies of these course completion certificates must be provided on or before beginning of class.

Special Notes:

A MINIMUM # thirty (30) advance student registrations is REQUIRED and must be received by SEPTEMBER 17, 2010 in order to conduct this CDP-sponsored course. You are considered accepted as a student in this class upon receipt of your application by this office so you will not receive a letter acknowledging that acceptance.

Meals, lodging, and travel arrangements/expenses are the responsibility of the student and will NOT be reimbursed by KYEM.

Registration:

Registration application for the course can be completed using the attached student registration form. Students will be notified if the course is cancelled. For this reason, it is imperative that you provide accurate contact information.
